Whereas, The Pendleton Church, Cincinnati, is built upon a lot which is not deeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church in fee simple, but only for the period of its use for religious services, then to revert to certain heirs; and

Whereas, The said Church is involved in a debt of over three thousand dollars of principal and accrued interest to the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, secured by a mortgage on this property, which we do not own, and certain obligations of the Trustees, all of whom are poor men, and most of whom are very poor; and

Whereas, By reason of two destructive annual floods and other misfortunes known to us, the said Church has not been able to raise one dollar, either of interest or principal, on said debt since the loan was effected, and is not now able, and under existing circumstances never will become able, to pay such debt, but will be inevitably crushed out by it if the debt is allowed to remain; and

Whereas, Said Pendleton Church property is valuable to Methodism—if it can be saved—and occupies an important mission field, populous, and lying along the shore of the Ohio River in Cincinnati; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That the Cincinnati Annual Conference, in session at Cincinnati September 9, 1885, Bishop W. L. Harris presiding, heartily and urgently recommends and requests that the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by special appropriation and gift from their treasury, make payment of this entire indebtedness against the Pendleton Church property, incurred in the building of the Church upon the sole condition that the Trustees procure from the heirs expectant quit claim deeds, so as to secure the property in fee simple to the Methodist Episcopal Church forever.

Resolved, 2. That we request Bishop Harris to join in a letter requesting and recommending the above action to the Board of Church Extension as a thing right and necessary to be done, and as calculated to increase the interest of our people in the work of the said Board.

Resolved, 3. That it would be ruinous to the interests of Methodism at Pendleton, and greatly prejudicial to the name and interests of the Board of Church Extension if its officers should institute legal proceedings against this Church in its embarrassment, or against the Trustees personally, since they have acted in good faith, but are now, through misfortunes which have overtaken them, unable to relieve themselves and their Church from embarrassment and peril.

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

HAVING consulted the Statistical Secretaries, we find that a great many omissions have been made in the reports of the pastors, and they request us to exhort the members of the Conference in our report to fill out all the blanks in some way, if it be only with a cipher, that every one who reads may know that the report is complete.

The Committee would remind the Conference this year, as last, of the action of the last General Conference, which action is as follows:

"Each Annual Conference shall require every preacher in charge to present his statistical report, complete, correct, and plainly written, on the first day of the Conference session.

"At the opening of the second day's session, the presiding Bishop shall call upon the Statistical Secretary to read the names of all charges not reported, and of all imperfectly or incorrectly reported.

"This call and announcement shall be made at the beginning of each day's session till every charge is correctly reported."

"All collections and other moneys must be reported in even dollars."

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

THIS great institution of Christian learning, under the providence of God, has enjoyed another year of splendid prosperity. The large number of students in attendance for the past years has been fully sustained this year—760 in attendance; 309 of these were in the college classes proper; 66 were graduated at the commencement last June. The freshman class was the largest in the history of the college, numbering considerably over one hundred.

The religious influence that has characterized this institution in all its past history was enjoyed in a marked measure during the past year. A very large number of students were converted during the year, and it is gratifying to know that the candidates for the ministry have increased so that more than two-fifths of the gentlemen in the last graduating class, at the time of their graduation, had determined to enter the ministry. With such a great university in our midst, whose religious and literary record is unsurpassed by any institution in the land, it is unnecessary for our people to go elsewhere to find educational advantages for their youth.

Probably there is no duty pressing with more imperative force upon the ministry and laity of our Church, than the giving of increased attention to the Christian education of the millions of youth committed to our guardianship. If interest is awakened and sympathy secured, we, the ministers, must be the agency by which this great work is achieved. The Church can be aroused to the importance of giving their children the best educational advantages, and that in institutions under the control of our Church. Dr. John Hall recently exhorted the Presbyterian Church to send their children to Presbyterian colleges, and we as Methodist preachers should aim to secure the youth of our congregations for Methodist institutions. Either distinctively Methodist institutions are not needed, or Methodists should patronize them.

While the past ten years have added greatly to the pecuniary resources of the University, and it is on a firmer basis than formerly, with an assured future, yet it must be acknowledged that the largeness of the donations by no means equals the magnitude of the work it is doing, and of the claim which it justly makes upon the benevolence of the great Church which it so efficiently serves. Notwithstanding the earnest appeal made by the President and its friends to the Church to signalize the centennial year of Methodism by worthy gifts to this institution, the response was by no means assuring, and the number of Churches who paid no heed to its claims was surprisingly and alarmingly large. Will we not as ministers commend this institution to our thoughtful laity, and urge upon them to place a part of the means God has given them where it will best serve his cause and accomplish most for humanity? The Visitors from this Conference to the last annual examinations report most favorably in respect to the high grade of scholarship, the excellent deportment of the students, as also the wise and efficient management of its President, Rev. Dr. Payne, and the thorough work of the faculty, and, above all, the religious spirit that pervades the entire institution.

We hereby submit the financial exhibit taken from the report of the Auditor:

W. G. WILLIAMS, Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

We recommend that Mr. Richard Dymond be elected by this Conference as Trustee of the University for the term of five years from June 25, 1885.

We recommend that the Bishop be requested to appoint the Rev. C. H. Payne, D. D., LL.D., to the Presidency of the University, and Rev. L. D. McCabe, D. D., LL. D., to the Chair of Philosophy.

We recommend that Rev. Wm. Herr, D. D., and Rev. D. C. Vance be appointed as Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year, with Rev. Geo. W. Dubois as alternate.

CINCINNATI WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

The past year, although a year of financial depression, was the best year to the College financially since the present management began. After the subscriptions made for the College debt were collected, it was determined to retain the lots adjoining the College. This involves a debt of about $20,000, so that this is the amount of the College's indebtedness at the present time.

Had the original purpose of selling these lots been carried out, the College might now be clear of debt; but the friends of the institution wisely decided to carry a small debt rather than lose such valuable property. Many advantages enjoyed by a college for ladies located in a city must be admitted, and the wide influence of the graduates of the Cincinnati Wesleyan is a sufficient reason for the continuance of favor shown it by the Church. We recommend that Rev. W. K. Brown, D. D., be appointed to the Presidency of this College.

We recommend that the pastor of Grace Church, Dayton, Rev. S. A. Brewster, Rev. W. N. Brodbeck, and A. B. Leonard, D. D., be appointed as Visitors and Examiners from this body.

We recommend that this Conference appoint the following Committee to investigate the legal relations that this College sustains to our Church: Rev. I. W. Joyce, D. D., Rev. J. H. Bayliss, D. D., and Rev. W. H. Sutherland, D. D.

The Committee of Examiners give a very gratifying report as to the scholarship shown at the last annual examinations.

HILLSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

This time-honored College has enjoyed another year of increasing prosperity under the efficient supervision of the President, Rev. J. F. Loyd, A. M., and his co-laborers. Its last graduating class was the largest it has had for many years. The Committee of Visitors and Examiners report, "that the examinations were highly satisfactory," and have only words of commendation to express in its behalf. The religious influence was very marked; every young lady but one was converted last year.

We recommend as Trustees, Rev. J. Pearson, C. W. Ketcham, D. D., Rev. J. P. Porter, Rev. S. W. Edmiston, J. M. Hiestand, J. L. West, Asa Haynes, and Harden Roads. That the Examiners and Visitors be Revs. J. Pearson, C. W. Ketcham, D. D., and Rev. J. P. Porter.

XENIA COLLEGE.

This College is well located and, considering the financial closeness of the times, reasonably prosperous. The attendance and interest have increased. The property is valued at $10,000, and is kept in good repair. Something has been done during the past year toward raising means to pay off the debt of $3,500. This effort will be continued, and the Trustees feel some confidence that, should easier times financially return, they will succeed.

We recommend that the pastors of Xenia Methodist Episcopal Churches be appointed as Visitors.

SPRINGFIELD FEMALE COLLEGE AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The College building has been considerably repaired, and is now in much better condition than it has been for years. The past year has been more successful than any for many years. At the last session of this Conference the interests of the Cincinnati Conference and of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the premises and funds of this institution were placed in the hands of Rev. Jas. F. Chalfant, D. D., with power to use conciliatory measures, or if need be, to take legal steps to secure the same interest for the Church according to the intent of the original donors; and in consequence of the death of Dr. Chalfant, we recommend that the Rev. L. F. Van Cleve D. D., be appointed in Dr. Chalfant's stead.

We recommend that the following be elected as Trustees: Wm. J. White, J. M. Deardoff, P. P. Mast, C. C. Taylor, C. H. Schaeffer, and J. S. Berry, their terms to begin September 1, 1886.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We are more and more convinced that the needs of the times demand a ministry with thorough theological training, and we are thankful that our Church is so well supplied with schools to meet this felt want. We are gratified to learn that another theological school has been added to the list, connected with the DePauw University, and we are glad to report that the outlook for this new enterprise is very promising, and we commend it with the Boston School of Theology, Drew Seminary, and Garrett Biblical Institute, to the thoughtful consideration of all our young men who contemplate entering the ministry. We believe that our Church is now thoroughly prepared to give as good literary or theological training as can be had anywhere. Dr. Lowrey reported very favorably as to his visit to Drew Theological Seminary, at its last commencement and annual examination.

We recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. H. B. Ridgaway, D. D., to the presidency of Garrett Biblical Institute.

We recommend that Rev. J. J. Reed and Rev. A. Lowrey, D. D., be appointed Visitors to Boston Theological School. That the Revs. W. N. Brodbeck and C. W. Rishell be appointed Visitors to Drew Seminary, and Revs. J. P. Porter and James Stephenson for Garrett Biblical Institute, and Rev. I. W. Joyce, D. D., and Rev. Jas. Murray be appointed Visitors for DePauw Theological School. That the Rev. M. J. Cramer, D. D., be appointed by the Bishop Professor of Systematic Theology in the Boston School of Theology.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

We are gratified to learn that the children and youth are being brought into closer sympathy with the educational work of our Church, through the influence of Children's Day. Its growth and spread have been so rapid that it has become a great power for good throughout our entire Church.

We recommend the universal observance of Children's Day by all our Churches.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE CINCINNATI CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN:—The managers of your Society have faithfully administered the trust committed to their care during the past year, and have assisted students in Hillsboro College and the Ohio Wesleyan University to the extent of the funds at our command. We regret that in some charges the pastors have omitted to take any other educational collection than that for the Children's Day Fund. We respectfully call the attention of the pastors to the provisions of the Discipline on this subject, and request them to use diligence in creating a fund for the assistance of students under the care of our Conference Society.

D. J. STARR, Secretary.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to submit the following report:

The other reports presented to an Annual Conference may be in relation to interests vast and urgent. They may need grave consideration, and appeal to our sympathy and support. But our Books and Periodicals are most intimately related to all these interests. From the first, they have been not merely educational in their influence and effect, but have been closely identified also with all of our great benevolences. The cause of Missions, of the Freedmen's Aid and Church Extension Society, the Bible and Tract Society, and especially the Sunday-school Union, have one of their strongest allies here. The causes of education, religion, temperance, and reform are, in no small measure, dependent for their prosperity on the quantity and quality of the books and periodicals which we publish as a Church. The financial management of our Book Concerns, the literary and religious excellence of our periodicals, are matters, therefore, of most serious moment. They are ever under the eye of the Church—ever subject to our commendation or censure. But are we, as the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as generous in our patronage, as earnest in the circulation and sale of our own books and periodicals as we should be? The object of this annual report is to help quicken the conscience of the Church, and thus, it may be, stimulate our agents and editors to still greater effort and enterprise.

A converted press is among the most powerfully effective of the agencies God is employing for the evangelization of the world. When Benjamin Franklin first reprinted, in this country, John Wesley's sermon on Free Grace, with several of the sermons of Geo. Whitefield, he little dreamed whereunto this thing would grow. We know that as late as 1820, our publishing interests, west of the Alleghanies, were all centered in the parlor of Martin Ruter, and that even years subsequent to this, on the occasion of a removal to more spacious quarters, and within the recollection of men now living, five cart-loads represented all our stock in trade. The publishing interests of our common Methodism in this country, have, from the first, been so weighty a care as to be fittingly called the "Book Concern." Because of this care on the part of our preachers, $1,750,000, we are told, is to-day the net capital invested, East and West, in the publishing houses of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The publications of the Church thus form already a magnificent library of 2,750 volumes. The aggregate sales, per annum, have lately been $1,400,000. The net capital of our Western Book Concern, November 30, 1884, was $448,887. We are glad to see that at that time it was able to report a decrease of liabilities amounting to $29,554.

If it is true that the average investment of preachers and people in our literature of every kind for the year 1884 was but 85 cents per member for the whole Church, our publishing agents themselves had just cause for turning upon us with criticism and complaint. Our people must still be encouraged to read—to purchase and read our own publications. Not only will this secure unity of doctrine and increased esprit du corps, but the larger the edition of book or paper called for, the less ultimately will be the individual charge. Meantime, the men that do honest work should have an honest price, and the people called Methodists—the friends of the laboring man—should be the very last to withhold their patronage from a Concern they can fully trust, especially as the profits are not for editors nor for agents, but inure to the benefit of the entire Church. A publisher of cheap though respectable literature can afford to fail, and that repeatedly. The unthinking world calls this enterprise. The great Methodist Book Concern has never failed. Its wise and watchful administration forbids it. The extended patronage of the Church should still further guarantee it the phenomenal prosperity it so richly deserves.

Your Committee are persuaded that the recent work of our Book Concerns, in elegant typography, good paper, and firm, substantial binding, compares most favorably, as to character and cost, with that of rival publishing houses, with the added confidence we may have in a literature that is pure, and in advertisements which are reliable and beyond the suspicion of being only vice in ambush. In this conviction we are fortified by the special investigations made and assurances given by the General Conference Book Committee of 1884.

The Christian world was long since admonished, “Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.” We may well heed this brave precept, confronted as we are on every hand by a too corrupt secular press. If a Catholic archbishop felt warranted in publicly warning his people against the introduction into the homes of Cincinnati of one of our great dailies, lest the minds of childhood and youth be defiled by its very sewerage of printed filth, we may not be less bold to admonish our people of the peculiar peril they face in the poisoned newspapers of the day. Especially must we recognize the Sunday newspaper to be the foe of the family, the Sunday-school, the Church, and the Gospel. As Christians, we can do no less than banish it from our doors. As Methodist ministers, we believe we can not be too pronounced in our advocacy of the suppression of immorality and vice, or too watchful against the pernicious literature which may insinuate itself into our Sunday-school libraries or into our homes. It is not unfitting, therefore, that we congratulate the Church on the increased stimulus given to profitable reading and study, on the part of both youth and adults, by the organization of the “C. L. S. C.,” the “Oxford League,” and similar enterprises, of late years projected within the bounds of our Church, having so directly in view the cultivation of a pure literary taste, and the wise economy of precious time.

We welcome the Methodist Review, now a bi-monthly, and wish for its venerable but still able editor the success he deserves in this new departure. The new missionary monthly, The Gospel in All Lands, we feel to be a needed help. The Sunday-school weekly, promised for advanced scholars, we believe will supply a want long felt by those who may have outgrown our other much valued Sunday-school papers.

The Epworth Hymnal, just published, we hope may have that prompt adoption in our Sunday-schools and prayer-meetings which its excellences merit.

Your Committee are pleased to report the Western Christian Advocate as increasingly attractive, vigorous, and aggressive. Certainly it is a task both difficult and delicate for the editor of a great denominational organ to stand unswervingly for the claims of religion and principle in time of political conflict and partisan strife. The attitude of Dr. Bayliss on the temperance question, at this peculiar juncture, commends both him and his paper to the increased respect of all the friends of legal prohibition, to whichever of the great parties they may yet chance to belong. We bespeak for the Western Advocate the continued favor and patronage of the members of our Church. It might well be a condition of leadership or stewardship in the Methodist Church that one be liberal, literary, and loyal enough to subscribe for our Christian Advocate. We believe the pastor is the best agent for the paper, and we recommend our preachers, as a rule, not to delegate this matter to the care of any layman on their charge.

With reference to the enlarged circulation of our books, we respectfully suggest that it might not be inappropriate, at the close of the weekly prayer-meeting, among the other notices, to call attention not only to our periodicals, but to the latest publications of our denomination, and, if possible, to have specimen copies in the hand of some reliable person, duly appointed, who should then and there solicit cash orders. The profits, if not desired by the preacher, might be given to the Missionary Society, or to the Poor Fund of the Church.

REPORT OF FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

ONE of the most important of all the questions of political economy, if, indeed, it does not lead all others in our nation, is that of illiteracy.

In the territory which affords a field for the operations of the Freedmen's Aid Society is found one-third of our national population and three-fourths of our illiteracy. The whites double in population every thirty-five years, the blacks every twenty years. At this rate of increase, in fifteen years (A. D. 1900) there will be a colored majority in each State from Maryland to Texas.

Mr. Garfield said, "There is no middle ground between citizenship and the ballot;" "we have no standard by which to measure the disaster that may be brought upon us by ignorance and vice in the citizen when joined to corruption and fraud in the suffrage. The voters of the Union, who make and unmake constitutions, and upon whose will hang the destinies of our governments, can transmit their supreme authority to no successors save the coming generation of voters, who are the sole heirs of sovereign power. If that generation comes to its inheritance, blinded by ignorance and corrupted by vice, the fall of the Republic will be certain and remediless. The census has already sounded the alarm in the appalling figures which mark how dangerously high the tide of illiteracy has risen among our voters and their children. To the South, this question is of supreme importance; but the responsibility of slavery did not rest upon the South alone. The nation itself is responsible for the extension of the suffrage, and is under special obligations to aid in removing the illiteracy which it has added to the voting population. For the North and South alike there is but one remedy." Washington has written: "In proportion as the structure of a government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened;" and Jefferson's terse way of putting it is: "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be."

In the North over five per cent of the whites, over ten years of age, are illiterate; in the South, nineteen per cent. In the North, twenty-five per cent of the blacks are illiterate, while in the South, seventy-three per cent belong to that class. Judge Tourgee says that in eight States, known as the Black Belt, forty-five per cent of the voters, white and black, can not read or write. You say the South sowed to the wind, now let them reap the whirlwind; but these States represent seventy-six per cent. of a majority of the Electoral College, in the House and in the Senate.

Out of ten millions of voters in the United States, two millions are illiterate. These two millions hold the balance of power. Mere education, divorced from goodness, is not enough for our safety; behind the learning must be a Christian conscience, which can come alone through Christian education. To furnish this is the mission of the Freedmen's Aid Society, which appeals at once to our patriotism and our piety.

While we are grateful for the past success of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and commend its present standing, we are earnestly desirous that its future may reach the expectations of every patriot and Christian philanthropist, enlightening the ignorant, qualifying the voter, and saving souls.

We commend the work of the honored and efficient Secretary and his assistant, Doctors Rust and Hartzell, for the preparation of the large, double-faced lithographic chart, for use before congregations, graphically showing the shades of illiteracy, from Iowa, where it is least, to South Carolina, where it is darkest, giving pictures of many buildings of the Society, and numerous facts bearing upon the work among the whites and blacks of the South.

We recommend that each pastor avail himself of the offer of the Secretary to furnish this chart gratuitously to each one, pledging himself to raise his apportionment for the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Resolved, 1. That we heartily approve the appeal for $250,000 a year from the whole Church for this cause.

Resolved, 2. That we accept the apportionment of $4,800 to this Conference, and request the presiding elders to make the apportionment to the several charges on that basis.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee on Church Extension respectfully report:

It is an interesting fact that all our connectional benevolences existed, in embryo, in the days of Asbury and his compeers. This was especially true of education, domestic missions, and Church extension. Bishop Asbury and his chief associates, but particularly the former, were accustomed to gather from the older and richer charges the means for building churches and schools, and for assisting to support preachers on the frontiers. Much of this kind of work, with great labor and care, was done personally by Mr. Asbury. Later, in a more irregular and general way, the same thing was done by agents, traversing the older portions of the Church, often repeating the service and the collections in the same charges for the same objects.

All this was carrying forth, in a somewhat wasteful way, the apostolic rule of taking from some Churches to help others. Indeed, the essential principle of Christianity is involved in this. Paul said to the elders of the Ephesian Church: "I have showed you all things, how that, so laboring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive." To the Church at Rome, Paul said: "We, then, who are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak."

The great advantages of our connectional system, over other and less concerted methods, are, that it economically but effectively administers the collecting and disbursing of the benevolences of one and a half million of people over an area of three and a half million square miles, and especially that it wisely distributes such charities in the sparser settlements of the country.

All this is true of our Church benevolences, generally. It is, if possible, even more true of the Board of Church Extension, which all through the South and in the West, has planted Churches where the tide of emigration goes.

All honor to the Board of Church Extension for what it has been doing so grandly for a score of years since its organization, and for the great possibilities before this young giant.

To the complete success of this work it is indispensable that the system shall be thoroughly worked in both departments, the giving and the disbursing.

What this Church Extension agency needs, and what the other Church agencies need, is not occasional, paroxysmal giving, but steady giving by all the Churches, kept up regularly from year to year. Then, like the early and the latter rains, or the refreshing dews of heaven, the beneficences of this great charity would be steady, and generous, and wise, making straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Our disciplinary plan is simple, wise, effective. It should be thoroughly worked in all our Churches, until every charge shall send up an annual collection.

Resolved, 1. That we recognize with profound gratitude to God the great good achieved by the Church Extension Board in its twenty years of organized movement.

Resolved, 2. That we will thoroughly apply our disciplinary plan of Church Extension, and use our utmost endeavor to meet the amount apportioned to this Conference.

REPORT ON THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAUSE.

THE end of all Sunday-school work should be to secure the salvation of each of its members.

Let there be secured as teachers only those persons who have been converted, and who are living in the conscious enjoyment of a genuine religious experience. Let them have an adequate conception, both of the magnitude and the responsibility of their work, and then bend every energy to the highest achievement in that work.

An opportunity should be given for each member to contribute, not only to the incidental expenses of the school, but also to the various benevolent enterprises of the Church, so that early there may be instilled into them a spirit of benevolence. Let the object for which each contribution is made be fully set forth, that all may contribute intelligently.

As a preparation for the responsible work of teaching, let there be held normals as frequently as possible, and by all means a weekly teachers' meeting.

Let the Bible be the text-book in the school, with all the helps to its study that can be had. We are of the opinion, that while the Sunday-school Journal, for teachers and young people, is excellent, and meets the demand of a large number, that the Lesson Leaf is entirely too fragmentary, and that a speedy improvement of it should be had, in order to meet the wants of a large number of Sunday-school scholars, who depend largely, if not wholly, upon it for assistance in the study of the lesson. By all means let the Catechism be used in the school.

See to it that the reading of the young in our schools be carefully guarded by a judicious selection of Sunday-school libraries, and by replacing the old, and, in too many cases, pernicious books, with new and wholesome ones.

We most heartily indorse the movement which proposes to put one new book each week into the reading matter of our libraries.

In order to cultivate a proper missionary spirit, let each school be organized into a missionary society, as our book of Discipline has well recommended.

See to it that all the schools are organized according to the Disciplinary plan.

We recommend the following nominations for the Sunday-school Union: L. F. Van Cleve, President; I. W. Joyce, Vice-president; R. E. Smith, Secretary; D. C. Vance, Treasurer. Managers: J. Murray, J. P. Shultz, R. K. Deem, E. Burdsall, B. F. Dimmick, and J. J. McCabe.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. PORTER,

D. C. VANCE,

W. J. BAKER,

R. E. SMITH,

E. P. JAMES,

J. L. GLASCOCK.

REPORT ON TRACT CAUSE.

It is impossible to fully estimate the value of systematic tract distribution. We deplore the lack of interest taken in this wise and economical plan of preaching the Gospel to the masses, which has proved so effective where fairly tried.

The tract meets a felt want in society. The indifferent are aroused by the personal influence of the distributor, and it politely opens the way for an invitation to attend the means of grace.

The busy student and merchant here find truth in a form suited to their limited time.

The poor find in the tract a literary and pious friend suited to their scanty purse, supplying their mind with mental stimulant, and their soul with the bread of heaven, thereby fitting them for the higher walks of secular and spiritual life here, and glory forever.

By a proper use of the Tract Society in the distribution of its literature, much of the indifference, error, and unbelief that pervade society to-day would be overcome.

We therefore heartily commend the Tract Society of our Church for its cheap and ample supply to meet the critical and growing demands in this line of Christian work, and urge upon our ministers and members the importance of systematic tract distribution in connection with their Church and missionary work.

J. W. GADDIS, Chairman.

A. HAMILTON, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

THE Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report, that we deem it cause for thankfulness that our preachers and people have shown during the year a commendable fidelity to the doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. There has prevailed a good revival spirit and general zeal for our institutions. The ministry has received a fair support, and the benevolent causes of the Church have been well sustained. We must, however, acknowledge that the spirituality of our people is still threatened by the old and insidious temptation of worldliness.

It is to be feared that certain popular amusements, the influence of which has always been pernicious both to morals and piety, are drawing away the youth of our families. The members of this Conference as pastors can not be too diligent in finding for our youth such wholesome social and literary relaxations as will answer the natural and reasonable demand for innocent pastimes. An earnest and judicious working of the plans recommended by the General Conference relating to the guidance of our young people will be most timely.

We would also urge upon all our people the cultivation of fervent piety, sterling integrity in business, purity of life, zeal for the salvation of the children of the Church, as well as unabating efforts for the evangelization of the masses of society; and also, that we always and everywhere, under all excitement, preserve the unity of the spirit.

We would further emphasize the necessity of a strict adherence to the teaching of the Holy Scriptures and the standards of Methodism, upon the doctrines of the Church, and especially upon the doctrine of Christian holiness. Let it be preached in its purity, and our people be led to the attainment of its richest experiences; but let us avoid all wild and unscriptural fanaticism. Our people can not safely absent themselves from the instructions of the Christian ministry and the regular ordinances of God's house. Any other course than this, such as the following of impressions or revelations assumed to be from the Holy Spirit, and not authorized by the plain teaching of the Word of God, is fanatical and injurious.

We are to be congratulated upon the unity and peace which have pervaded our societies. No denominational issue divides our preachers or people. Yet we can not ignore the presence of an agitation in the Commonwealth of which we are citizens, on the subject of temperance. We rejoice in the intense feeling manifested for the suppression of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage. Public opinion, however, has become divided as to the wisest means to reach this desirable end. In a country like ours, where the utmost liberty of individual opinion and action is allowable, it can not be otherwise than that citizens will differ as to the best means of securing the same results. As a religious community, we can not expect to be wholly free from the irritations which an exciting controversy as to the political aspects the temperance question involves. We deem it expedient to reaffirm our position as a non-partisan Church. No attempt of politicians or others can commit us to any political party. Our preachers and people should enjoy, without censure, the right of voting according to their conviction of duty. The Discipline of our Church does not in any way attempt to control the votes of our people. Our mission is to save men of all parties. The needs of the hour call for thoughtful consideration of each other's rights. The law of wisdom and charity should rule in our hearts and lives, in order that all unholy tempers and bitter words may be avoided, and so the peace of the Church be preserved.

Your Committee would say, as apposite to this point, that we have respectfully and carefully considered the memorials of certain worthy and esteemed laymen of the Church. In regard to the subject-matter of these memorials, we would respectfully suggest, that in view of an honest difference of opinion as to the best methods of reaching the same desirable end, and in view of the past tolerance of the Church, we advise that no action be taken.

And in conclusion, your Committee indulge the hope that to us all may be given the "wisdom that is from above," which "is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy."

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee on Temperance, having considered the subject assigned them, beg leave to report, as follows:

The manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicating liquors as beverages are the fruitful cause of evils so numerous, and so destructive to society, affecting with deadly influences its political, economic, industrial, commercial, social, and moral interests to such an alarming extent, that the extirpation of this traffic has become the profoundest question before the American people.

Through the years its history has been marked by steady growth, until now, in defiance of all barriers, moral, social, and legal, which have hitherto been raised up to impede or arrest its progress, it is growing more rapidly than the population of the country; it is robbing innumerable homes of peace and comfort, the masses of prosperity and happiness, and the industries of the country of a thousand million of dollars every year.

It is a lawless business; it seeks to evade, defeat, or defy every law enacted to regulate it and protect society against its ravages; its hand is against every man, and stretched forth only to blast and destroy that which is good in the land; its heart is pitiless to the woes of childhood and the desolations of the widow, and its ear leaden to the wail of the many who mourn their untimely dead.

It is the greatest foe to the Church of God, Christian work, and the holy Sabbath; it will hearken to no plea of distress, heed no warning voice; but, with relentless purpose, and hands red with the blood of its slain victims, it grasps for the scepter of supreme power in the State, and threatens to engulf the nation in the unspeakable woes that are not the accidents, but the inherent and necessary results of this traffic.

Therefore, it is the judgment of your Committee:

I. We unfalteringly stand on the old, and time-honored platform of Methodism as written in the law of the Church, namely: "We regard voluntary total abstinence from all intoxicants as the true ground of personal temperance, and complete legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks as the duty of civil government.

"We heartily approve of all lawful and Christian efforts to save society from the manifold and grievous evils resulting from intemperance, and earnestly advise our people to co-operate in all measures which may seem to them wisely adapted to secure that end."

II. Believing in this long-accepted doctrine of our Church, that there is but one permanent cure for this evil, namely, constitutional prohibition enforced by appropriate legislation, it, therefore, follows that we can not approve of license or taxing laws as a remedy for the evils resulting from intemperance, and that no law can be valuable as a temperance measure which does not involve and apply the principle of prohibition, and such laws are valuable just in proportion as they make this principle universal in its application to the drink traffic and the appliances for their enforcement strong and masterful.

III. We renew the call upon the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, at its next session, to re-submit to the suffrage of the voters of the State a proposition to so amend the Constitution as that the manufacture and vending of all intoxicants, to be used as a beverage, shall be forever prohibited in this State, and that such amendment shall be submitted without being entangled with alternative propositions.

IV. We respectfully urge the General Assembly to pass a law requiring instruction to be given on alcohol and hygiene in the public schools of the State.

V. Profoundly convinced of the righteousness of the cause, and that good, and only good, will come to the people and country through its triumphs, we express the conviction that final victory will come chiefly through "the combined and sanctified influence of the family, the Church, and the State."

VI. Your Committee would recommend the appointment of Rev. M. Dustin, D. D., as agent of the Conference Temperance Society for the ensuing year.

VII. WHEREAS, The last General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church recommended that the year 1885, or some portion thereof, be observed as the centennial of the Temperance Reformation; and, WHEREAS, the week commencing September 20, 1885, has been designated by numerous organizations as centennial week; therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend to the pastors of this Conference that they, on Sabbath, the 20th inst., preach in their congregations on the subject of temperance, and that during the week following such additional services be held as they may deem wise and proper.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. A. Lowrey, D. D., as a delegate to the Centennial Temperance Conference, to be held in Philadelphia, September 23 and 24, 1885.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

THE Committee on Sabbath Observance submits the following report: The evidence is painfully abundant that our American Sabbath is rapidly changing its character from that of a holy day to a holiday.

It is, perhaps, useless for this Conference of Christian ministers to enumerate and denounce the flagrant violations of this sacred day everywhere so conspicuous in the outside world, but we can, and we must raise a barrier against the progress of Sabbath desecration and secularization within the Church itself. Here the work of reform must begin, and it must begin at once, and in earnest, if a sacred Sabbath is to be preserved to the Church and to the nation.

The want of an enlightened and sensitive Christian conscience respecting the keeping of the Sabbath day holy, is the prime cause of our present perilous condition, and the only remedy is in the awakening and development of a conscience among our membership in general that is genuinely Christian, and not molded by popular sentiment.

We appeal then to the members of our Churches and congregations to hasten to the rescue of this sacred and invaluable heritage of a holy Sabbath day. They can, if they will, arrest the progress of Sabbath desecration, and cause society in all its departments to feel the force of their firm principles unfalteringly adhered to. Let Christian men and women maintain the sacredness of the Sabbath in their personal habits and in their families; let them as far as practicable withdraw their patronage from all places of business or amusement that habitually violate the Sabbath and the effect will soon be apparent to those whose purses are far more sensitive than their consciences.

In view then of the present condition and possible influence of our Church in respect to this vital subject, the following resolutions are respectfully submitted:

Resolved, 1. That as ministers of the Cincinnati Conference we will renew, and, if possible, increase our efforts in the pulpit, the prayer-meetings, and in private intercourse to secure a more general and religious observance of the holy Sabbath throughout our entire membership, and we will endeavor to enforce our Discipline in this respect.

Resolved, 2. That we will make an earnest appeal to all our people to keep the Sabbath day holy.

First, By a more constant and general attendance of parents and children upon public worship, both morning and evening, or as often as service is held in the sanctuary on the Lord's day.

Second, By ordering their households in such a way as to banish every thing of a secular character as far as possible, and fill the home with a sacred atmosphere on the Sabbath day.

Third, By especially guarding the members of their families against improper reading, barring every Methodist home against the Sunday newspaper, which beyond all question is one of the most fruitful causes of breaking down our sacred Sabbath in modern civilization.

Fourth, By kindly entreating all our people, as they love God and desire to see the world speedily brought to Christ, to refrain from all purchases on the Lord's day in groceries, meat stores, ice-cream saloons, and wherever an unholy traffic in such things is observed.

Fifth, By discouraging on the Sabbath all those forms of amusement which are becoming so general, but which, nevertheless, strike a fatal blow, not only at the sacred Sabbath, but also at pure and strong character.

Sixth, By religiously withholding as far as practicable their patronage whenever such patronage contributes to the aid of those who willfully disregard the Lord's day.

Resolved, 3. That wherever camp-meetings are held on the Sabbath day their managers can expect no sympathy and support from the members of this Conference, nor from our membership, unless they conscientiously prevent the sale of all unnecessary articles and employ efficient agencies to maintain the best of order and preserve the sanctity of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 4. That it is also our judgment that open gates with admission fees on the Sabbath day result injuriously to the cause of religion, and we recommend to our ministers and people the abandonment of this practice.

C. H. PAYNE, Chairman.

A. BOWERS, Secretary.

REPORT ON DIVORCE.

YOUR Committee beg leave to present for re-adoption the following items from last year's report:

1. "The teachings of Scripture and the Discipline of the Methodist Communion on the subject of marriage are clear and undoubted. Jesus Christ, so early in his ministry as the Sermon on the Mount, and repeatedly thereafter, taught his followers in unmistakable terms the Divine law as to the sacredness of marriage."

2. "The Discipline of the Methodist Church teaches that marriage was 'instituted of God,' and is a 'holy estate;' that it is not to be entered into unadvisedly, 'but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.' That the union thus formed is not to be sundered by man for any reason not destructive of the relation itself, and requires that 'no divorce shall be recognized as lawful by the Church except for adultery, and that no minister shall solemnize marriage in any case where there is a divorced wife or husband living; but this rule shall not apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery, nor to divorced parties seeking to be reunited in marriage.'"

3. "The dangers of the time require that these teachings of Christ and this doctrine and law of the Church should be expounded and enforced with unswerving fidelity. In the effort to correct the monstrous and wide-spread vice that threatens our homes and the entire social fabric no sect nor section should be known, but all citizens and all Churches should be invoked to aid in rescuing marriage and the family institution from degradation and destruction."

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. LOYD, Chairman.

E. BURDSALL, Secretary.

REPORT ON MORMON POLYGAMY.

THE Committee appointed to consider the abomination of Mormon polygamy are glad to report that some progress has been made toward the extirpation of this enormous vice. Several guilty parties have been arrested, and some convicted of polygamous crimes, and are now suffering the just penalty of their misdemeanors.

Another sign of progress is the fact that the Mormons themselves have become alarmed at the attitude of the government toward them.

Evidently the chief criminals begin to comprehend that they will soon be brought to grief by the civil authority unless they get beyond its jurisdiction. Accordingly, it is reported they are moving to shift their leprous headquarters to Mexico. This is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

Still another encouraging feature is the service now being rendered for the mitigation and final extinction of the evil by international diplomacy. When Mr. Evarts was Secretary of State, he addressed a circular to the courts of Europe, asking their co-operation to prevent Mormon emissaries from practicing their arts by way of deluding, corrupting, and decoying their subjects from their homes and country and bringing them here to be clandestinely plunged into the debauch of polygamous relations. As a wholesome result, some have been arrested and punished—notably in Switzerland.

The position of the President of the United States of America in relation to this foul blot and cancer also begets hope. Regarding the precedents established by other Presidents, and the trend of Congressional enactments on the subject, he has nobly declared himself in favor of stringent legal measures for the extinction of the vice.

But all is not sunshine in the heavens of hope. A dark cloud hangs over our Territories, and this is destined to remain there for years, unless more vigorous efforts are made for its removal. Indeed, we have reason to fear, from the dilatory action of the government and the ambition and connivance of politicians, that the deep and dismal stain of Mormonism will only be washed out by the blood of our sons.

It must be confessed also, that Mormonism never made more strenuous efforts than now to diffuse itself and multiply its members. We suppose it was never more defiant and brazen than at the present time. While we have hints of a coming revelation against a plurality of wives, we can not credit the sincerity of such outgivings while hundreds of deluded victims are brought to our shores every month or two and hurried off to the monstrous cathedral of defilement at Utah. Our hope is that the very intensification of the vice is evidence of death struggles according to the law which seems universal that all great reforms seem to intensify the evils which they aim to destroy, especially when they approach the point of their final overthrow. As the prospect of extinction stares them in the face they become more despotic, more malignant, and more aggressive. It was so with slavery. It is becoming so with the liquor traffic; it will be so with Mormonism, and will be so with all these and similar evils, because by a law of moral changes in the ascending scale it always has been so. The crisis of oncoming destruction never fails to give to evil a harder twist, resulting in throes of desperation. Accordingly, John tells us Satan came down on one occasion in great wrath because his time was short. So may it be with Mormonism and the saloon. Accordingly,

Resolved, 1. That it is the duty of the general governments to suppress Mormon polygamy at once in the Territories.

Resolved, 2. That it is the duty of the State government not to allow its festering presence for a moment within their respective jurisdictions, nor to permit these seducers to prowl about among the ignorant and unsuspecting classes wherever their seductions by sleepless vigilance can be detected and punished.

Resolved, 3. That we honor and thank the President of the United States for his recommendations touching the eradication of Mormon polygamy, and express our high respect for those Congressmen who have contributed their talents, influence, and votes for the accomplishment of the same purpose, and that we gratefully acknowledge the fidelity and service of the commissioners appointed and sent into the Territories to enforce the laws against this great crime.

Resolved, 4. That we recommend the enactment of stringent laws making, as far as possible, their attempts to inveigle unsuspecting persons into the meshes of Mormon polygamy presumptive proof of criminal intent.

Resolved, 5. That all ministers and Churches should inform themselves concerning this subtle foe, and contrive for the speedy abolition of this vile and blasting institution.

Resolved, 6. That the Committee now reporting be continued during the coming year, and be requested to do all things discreet and practicable for the suppression of this heinous and menacing pollution.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

WE take pleasure in reporting considerable progress made in building and improving parsonages during the past year.

A few houses have been erected, several have been remodeled and refurnished, and funds have been raised in a number of other charges aggregating a large amount.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That in every charge where there is no parsonage the pastor and people should take immediate steps to formulate a plan to secure a lot and suitable house.

Resolved, 2. That particular attention should be called to the necessity of providing all parsonages with at least heavy articles of furniture, in accordance with the requirements of the Discipline—¶377.

Resolved, 3. That our pastors, with the appointed Committees, should beautify and adorn with trees and shrubbery our parsonage grounds, and exercise care in preserving the property.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

YOUR Committee on Finance beg leave to submit the following:

We believe that a diligent effort on the part of our pastors to bring up each collection to the apportionment will, if instigated by a high sense of duty, result in a large increase of our benevolent funds.

We recommend the adoption by all of our Societies, so far as practicable, of the Financial Plan contained in our book of Discipline, and that this plan may be made effective, we recommend,

1. That the preachers in charge read to their congregation paragraphs 370, 371, and 372, and explain publicly the advantages of systematic giving.

2. That the obligations of our membership to contribute according to their ability to the support of the Gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the Church be so persistently, affectionately, and judiciously enforced that it shall become in all our people a controlling principle.

3. That the sympathy and interest of the children be enlisted in this department of Church work; that they be taught and encouraged to give by direct contributions in their own name to all the benevolences of the Church.

4. That opportunity be given to all who attend our services, whether members or not, to contribute of their means as the Lord hath prospered them.

5. We do most earnestly recommend that all funds for current expenses or benevolent causes be raised by direct voluntary contributions, thereby excluding from the financial plan of the Church all fairs and festivals of questionable moral tendency.

REPORT ON AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE American Bible Society since its formation, in 1816, has issued 45,440,206 copies of the Bible, in whole or in part. This is foundation work. It is through the preaching of the Word that the world is to be brought to Christ. Yet we have a conviction that the Church does not recognize, as it should, the importance of this fact and the claims of the society that is so efficiently doing the work.

God is opening up new fields for the preaching of the Gospel, and into these fields the Scriptures must go if a spiritual harvest is to be reaped.

The Bible Society is seeking to supply this need, and its claim ought to lie very close to the heart of all who love the kingdom of our Lord. There has been a growing demand for the Scriptures in all lands, so that the expenditures of the Society have been increasing from $60,000 to $167,000 in the last fifteen years, while the prospects and demands for the present year are larger than ever before.

Within the past two years and a half the Society has begun its fourth canvass of our entire country with the intention of supplying every family with a copy of the Word of God. During this time it has visited 3,073,355 families, more than one-tenth of whom, or 394,866 were without the Word. It has supplied 275,177 destitute families, besides 163,880 individuals.

During the last year it has expended in prosecuting its work $619,882.58. Of this large amount only $59,285.98 were from auxiliary societies, Churches, and individuals. The result of such meager support has been a drain upon the reserve fund of $255,097.99. This is to the Society, and ought to be to the Church, a matter of deep concern.

Because of the work it is doing and its supreme importance, we recommend that as far as possible pastors co-operate with the auxiliary societies; that they preach at least one sermon during the year on the Scriptures, in which the claims of this Society shall be presented, and that the Churches co-operate heartily in this arrangement for a thorough and economical resupply of districts with the Bible, and encourage it in every way possible in the work in which it is engaged.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

To Draft Suitable Resolutions Relative to the Distinguished Services and Death of Gen. Grant.

THE Cincinnati Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church desires to place on record an expression of its deep sorrow at our great national bereavement in the death of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant. Born in the State of Ohio, and within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference, his parents worthy members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, himself a firm believer in its doctrines and a constant attendant upon its ministry, it is fitting that we should express our profound appreciation of his great worth, and his distinguished services to the nation and to the world.

The entire nation owes to its illustrious providential deliverer a debt of gratitude which no words of ours can possibly express; but as a part of the great Church, which, by its contribution of prayers of sympathy, and of valiant men in battle array, helped to save the imperiled nation, we cheerfully join the grateful millions of our whole country in publicly acknowledging the honor due to the man of Providence, whose death the whole civilized world mourns.

Beyond doubt his early religious training, his unquestioning acceptance of the great fundamental truths of Christianity, and his unwavering faith in the Divine Providence, which engirdled both himself and the righteous cause which he represented, made him the hero that he was, and gave him the inspiration and courage by which his great achievements were wrought.

The Conference tenders to the smitten widow and bereaved family of Gen. Grant its sincere sympathy with them in their overwhelming grief, and offers its prayers to the God of all grace and comfort that he will sanctify to them and to the whole nation this inexpressible sorrow.

MEMOIRS.

MINUTE ON THE DEATH OF BISHOP WILEY.

It is eminently fitting that this Conference should present its tribute to the memory of the lamented Bishop, Isaac W. Wiley, who, for nearly twenty years, has lived among us as Editor and Bishop, and whose death since our last session was singularly sublime and glorious.

When the whispering wires brought the intelligence from the distant shores of China, that our good Bishop, after setting the Churches in order in Japan and in North and Central China, had reached Foochow, the scene of his early missionary toil, only to die, the sad news greatly startled and pained his many friends in this region.

This Conference has been much blest and honored by his personal and official intercourse with us, and also by his noble record.

In many ways large benefit has come to us from his superintendence in our midst. Our grief is deep and real. Our loss is irreparable.

Bishop Wiley was a man of great versatility. We knew him as the pure man, the saintly Bishop, the wise superintendent, the judicious counselor, the genial, loving friend. We knew him as the man of noble impulses and of true unselfishness; as the advocate of Christian education; as untiring in zeal and effort for the Freedmen; as thoroughly and effectively interested in the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies; as a man of affairs; as gifted with keen penetration and clear insight; as the able writer and the eloquent orator.

Added to all these public qualities, Bishop Wiley was a man of domestic virtues, who loved and honored his home; a kind, faithful husband, and a devoted father.

We can not dwell in full detail upon the many lines of usefulness in which he wrought. Others have written with great force and at length upon the chief characteristics and elements which distinguished him.

In eloquent words they have told the story of his early life and ministry; of his missionary toil and its fruits, his large success as an educator, his ability as an editor and author, his manliness, his high episcopal merits, his power and skill as a public speaker, his effective advocacy of our Church enterprises, especially of the Freedmen's Aid Society and the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. Recognizing the truth and force of all this, and believing that none of these pictures are overdrawn, we see from them how much richer and better we are from having been associated so long and so closely with our beloved friend and brother.

We may not overlook the thrilling fact that Bishop Wiley's death was grandly triumphant. His dying words were almost apostolic. He had not been a joyous preacher, he said, nor a joyous creature, but he had been a peaceful, happy, hopeful Christian. "With a little modification," said he, "I can say what Paul said at his end, 'I have fought a good fight;' I won't go as far as Paul;—I have fought a hard fight, I have kept the faith, I have finished my work and henceforth." . . . Adding, "My faith is in the same Christ for whom I have lived and worked, and the same Christ through whom I hope to attain everlasting life." He had a yearning desire, often expressed, to go home—to go to his home in heaven. He gave the missionaries his benedictions. He implored God's favor upon them, saying, "God bless you, forever more. Amen." And so, dying in the faith of his childhood and of his riper years, our good brother, on one of Foo-chow's brightest days, went up to the diviner brightness of heaven's eternal sunshine, to the presence of the chief Shepherd and Bishop of souls.

That he left us in the fullness of his years and usefulness, and in the climax of his rare powers as a Christian worker, in many lines; that he has sanctified in our hearts forever the missionary cause, by dying in the mission of his early planting, and by sleeping in that far-off heathen land, beside the youthful sharer of his toils; that the fame of his Christian achievements had girdled the world, filling two hemispheres with sorrow when he died; all this but deepens and intensifies our grief at his loss.

To those parts of his life spent in scenes and places remote from us, a greater charm and beauty have been lent by our close and sweet fellowship with him for the past two decades.

We shall love the missionary cause the more for having known and loved him. The Freedmen's Aid Society will have stronger, holier claims upon us because he had given it his best thoughts and sympathies. We shall have a deeper interest in the Woman's Missionary Societies, in Christian education, and in our world-encircling Church agencies, because of his personal and official relation to them.

Heaven is the more attractive that, besides "the saints of all ages," it holds our Kingsley, and Thomson, and Clark, and Simpson, and Wiley. Till we reach that better, happier world, Christian toil, and sacrifice, and suffering, will be all the sweeter and the more welcome to us for having had, in all these, the goodly fellowship of our beloved and lamented Bishop Wiley.

REV. M. G. BAKER.

REV. M. G. BAKER was born in Kentucky, December 31, 1815. In 1819 his parents removed to Georgetown, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. He had the few educational advantages afforded by the public schools of that day, but his thirst for knowledge was greater than could be satisfied at this humble fountain, so in his early manhood he returned to his native State, and in Augusta College finished his education. He did not graduate in the classics, his opportunities being limited to their scientific course. His parents and others of the family were members of the Baptist Church. He was the first of the household to enter another fold. In 1833, when 18, he was converted to God, and joined the Methodist Church. He at once gave himself diligently to the study of Methodist theology, and became proficient in the great fundamental doctrines of the Church, and especially in those relating to the believer's privileges in Christ, embracing a deep, comprehensive religious experience. When 25 his mind was much exercised on the subject of perfect love. Here I am permitted to quote from a fragmentary journal, which he kept at this period: "How often have I had it impressed on my mind and conscience that it is my duty and privilege to seek the full blessing of perfect love; but how have I abused these kindly intimations of God's Spirit upon my heart; how have I forgotten the many vows I have made. Shall I be still and believe that there is nothing for me to do now? Can I not believe that God will yet work upon my heart this great work? Surely he is able to perform all he has promised, even my sanctification from sin. And now, O my heart, art thou willing that Jesus shall rule and lovingly abide within thee? Does all within thee say yes? Or has the enemy so long and successfully foiled thy purposes that now thou art fearful to trust thy best Friend, thy heavenly Teacher, thy only deliverer! I conclude most solemnly that nothing less than an entire consecration of all my powers of soul and body to God will in any way answer the end of my being." This was dated "Georgetown, Ohio, May 29, 1840." "At home, in my room, on my knees." Two years after writing the above, in October, 1842, while still in college, he first received the great blessing of perfect love.

Before this he was impressed that he was called to the office and the work of the ministry, but from this period his convictions became settled that this was to be the work of his life. His modest, retiring nature shrank from the responsibility, but his strong conviction held him fast. Yielding, in 1843 he accepted a recommendation, and was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference. His first and only appointment in this Conference was at Georgetown, Ky. At the end of one year, through the efforts of Rev. Wm. H. Raper, then a presiding elder, he was transferred to the Ohio Conference, and appointed as junior preacher on Lewisburg Circuit. At the close of this year (1845) Conference met in Cincinnati, where he was ordained by Bishop Hamline, who appointed him junior preacher on Tremont Circuit. It was during this Conference year (May 5, 1846,) that he was united in marriage to Miss Kezia Lamme. Their first appointment together was Middletown and Franklin. At the end of one year on this charge he was ordained elder by Bishop Janes, and appointed to Clarksville. At the close of his first year on this charge his health failed, and he was compelled to rest for a year. He then resumed effective work, and was appointed to Washington C. H., where he remained two years. His next charge was Greenfield. At the end of his first year at this place, in 1852, the old Ohio Conference was divided; Brother Baker, much to his gratification, fell into the Cincinnati division. He was invited to return to Greenfield, but at his own request was removed, being appointed to Lexington. He preferred circuit work on account of his health; but at the end of this year his health again forced him into retirement—he remained supernumerary for five years, living in Yellow Springs. In the Fall of 1858 he was again made effective, and appointed to Highland Circuit, remaining two years. He received other appointments, as follows: West Union, two years; Enon, one year; New Burlington, two years; Jamestown, one year; Vienna, one year; Winchester, two years; Camden, three years; North Bend, one year; Union, two years; Moorefield, one year. This year closed his itinerant work; at the following Conference, held in Xenia, he superannuated. With his family he sojourned for a short time in Miamisburg, then in Franklin, then near Xenia, and about one year before his death he removed to the city of Xenia, where he reached life's close at 8 o'clock on the evening of September 26, 1884.

Brother Baker's mind was clear, incisive, logical. He possessed a large fund of general information, which he used to profit. He was thoroughly Wesleyan in his theology; he had a great love for the Church, and greatly admired all our denominational peculiarities; he believed in Methodism, rejoiced in its history, and by faith anticipated for it a glorious destiny; yet he was no bigot, but catholic in his spirit toward all Christians. As a preacher he was clear, instructive, eminently practical and spiritual. His manner in the pulpit was generally pleasing, his style of delivery was his own; animated but not vehement, it was pervaded with a spirit of deep solemnity that often made his utterances very impressive. He excelled as an expounder of Scripture. As a pastor he was conscientious, faithful, laborious; doing his work well, he was successful. God used his ministry to save men. In every charge he served he had more or less revival influence attending his ministry. At Washington C. H. he had his most successful pastorate. During the two years he served this charge five hundred souls were converted and added to the Church. Within the territory then embraced in this circuit there are now five pastoral charges. He was of an humble, unassuming spirit, not much inclined to contend for his own rights; but in defense of the truth he was brave and fearless, a pure-minded, devout, holy man.

Almost from the beginning of his last sickness his voice failed, so that it became very difficult to understand him. In allusion to this, he said to the writer: "If I can not talk I can think of Jesus and his glorious salvation." To the same on various other occasions he said: "I have recently been thinking much of God, and especially of his eternity. O what a thought, the eternal God!" Then, as his face kindled with holy joy, he whispered: "He is my refuge." Again: "It is an easy matter for God to save a sinner who trusts him. It appears to me about the easiest thing God can do, but now that it is done, what a glorious thing it is for me." Again, in answer to the question, Does the Lord grant his presence to go with you? he looked up with surprise, and replied: "Why, brother, it is never any other way; he comes into my room and constantly lights it with his presence." His attention was called to the time when he first experienced the blessing of perfect love, and he was asked if he had retained it uninterruptedly until that time. He replied: "No, I lost it and regained it a number of times, but last Winter, during our protracted meeting, I got a firm hold on it, and from that time until now the fire has not been quenched nor the light dimmed." To the question, Is it all light before you? he answered: "I know no clouds." Again, he said: "Christ is a tower of great strength; he is that to me." To his wife and two daughters, whom he loved with deep affection, he said, near the final parting: "God's will is my will, and that embraces it all." Among his last utterances were the words: "Wonderful salvation."

"The chamber where the good man meets his fate
Is privileged beyond the common walks
Of virtuous life, quite on the verge of heaven."

W. RUNYAN.

REV. JESSE M. ROBINSON.

REV. JESSE M. ROBINSON was born near New Burlington, Ohio, December 17, 1826, and died October 11, 1884. His early life was spent tilling the soil on his father's farm in Summer, and attending the district schools in the neighborhood in Winter, supplementing the latter by a few terms at a high school at Harveysburg. Such were his natural abilities and application to study, that before he reached his majority he began school-teaching, in which vocation he excelled, and continued until he was received into the Ohio Conference in 1851.

On reaching his majority he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, but did not realize the converting grace of God until April 9, 1850, when he entered fully the school of Christ, continuing a diligent and faithful student until mortality was swallowed up of life. He was licensed to exhort March, 1851; June 22d, following, to preach, and was received on trial in the Ohio Conference September, 1851, and was ordained deacon and elder in due time. His first field of labor was Aberdeen Circuit, at the close of which he was united in marriage with Mary M. Kitterman, his now bereaved widow. The following were their subsequent charges: Sinking Springs, Winchester, Milford, Goshen, Sinking Springs a second time, Concord, Addison, Urbana—Second Church, Cincinnati—Asbury Charge, Union, and New Carlisle. When he was transferred to the Des Moines Conference, and stationed at Fort Dodge, and subsequently at Greenwood, when he was retransferred to the Cincinnati Conference, and appointed successively to Amelia, Mingo, Mt. Tabor, Moorefield, and Lynchburg. In these several charges he continued from one to three years, laboring with general acceptability and usefulness.

Seven years ago he took a superannuated relation, and with his family removed to Malvern, Ia., laboring from time to time, as health permitted, and the demands of the work required. Last Spring he took work under the elder in the North-west Kansas Conference, and recently in the Nebraska Conference, to the bounds of which he was on his way to convey his family when he was found a corpse at Peoria, Ill., on the morning of October 11th, at about seven o'clock.

The deceased possessed a critical mind, and was of studious habits, ever bringing into the sanctuary beaten oil. While all his pulpit labors evinced this characteristic, some of his discourses gave evidence of unusual preparation, and were of much more than ordinary ability.

While the spiritual element was not wanting in his discourses, the intellectual sometimes predominated. He was an able, sound, and eminently evangelical minister of the Gospel of Christ.

During most of the years of his ministry he was the subject of affliction in the distressing form of indigestion, which, at times, seriously affected his health and preyed upon his mind. His final disease, however, was heart trouble. A critical examination by a competent physician, some eight months before his death, admonished him he was liable to die at any moment, and more likely while asleep than when awake, and so it proved. He chose, however, to meet this solemn event in the path of duty, and so bade his family a most cheerful adieu to go on his late ministerial tour, to meet death possibly at the midnight hour, when he ceased at once to work and live.

In a late letter to his family he spoke of his great enjoyment of the Conference Love-feast, and Bishop Mallalieu's sermon following at the late Nebraska Conference. "This," he writes, "has been to me one of the grandest days I ever witnessed at an Annual Conference. I felt shouting happy then and all the way from Church, and am happy and light-hearted as I write because of this day. Tell my friends I am in the harness again and happy." Thus did grace prepare for sudden death and a blissful immortality.

REV. JAMES F. CHALFANT, D. D.

JAMES FRANCIS CHALFANT was born in Augusta, Bracken County, Kentucky, January 20, 1821. His father was Thomas Chalfant, a merchant of Augusta. His mother was America Coburn Chalfant, the daughter of Judge Coburn, one of Kentucky's early jurists. James was early bereft of both his parents, his father having died when he was nine months old, and his mother when he was five years old. After spending a time in the family of his uncle and namesake, Mr. Francis Chalfant, in Kentucky, James came to live with his uncle, Mr. Robert Chalfant, a merchant of Felicity, Ohio. Here James was given a clerkship, and subsequently admitted as a partner, and placed in charge of a second store in the same town. Up to this time the associations and habits of the young merchant gave no promise of an early conversion, much less of his subsequent ministerial life.

The writer once heard Dr. Chalfant preach from Christ's words, "Without me ye can do nothing." In the sermon the preacher referred to his own experience of awakening and conversion, attributing his arrest and salvation to a supernatural and gracious influence that came upon him while he was pursuing his sinful ways; arousing his conscience, breaking the charms of vice, discovering to him the beauties of religion, and the way of salvation by faith, it made him a free man in Christ Jesus.

Suddenly and powerfully awakened by God's Spirit, with his characteristic promptness and decision, at the close of one day's business, young Chalfant turned the key in the front door, walked back in the store to where his two clerks were, and said: "Boys, I am going to turn over a new leaf. I shall henceforth be a Christian. Let us kneel down and call upon God for help." They all knelt, and he poured forth a penitential prayer of confession, self-renunciations, and faith in Christ, under which all were melted to tears.

Leaving the store he sought the house of the class-leader, Mr. Parrish, to whom he made a full statement of his case, and asked permission to write his application to be received as a probationer into the Methodist Episcopal Church in the class-book. Permission was gladly given, and the entry was made in Mr. Chalfant's characteristic handwriting and signature.

Mr. Chalfant was received into the Church by the Rev. Wesley Rowe, then pastor at Felicity, and he at once supplied himself with a carefully selected library, and industriously pursued a well chosen course of study. His exercises in the meetings attracted attention, and his spiritual counselors began to converse with him about taking a more public part in the services. He then revealed his own convictions of a call to preach, and in due time was licensed, first as an exhorter and then as a local preacher. His first sermon was preached in a revival meeting, which was being held by the Rev. Wm. I. Fee, at New Hope, on the Georgetown Circuit. The sermon was one of great heart power, delivered by a preacher in tears, and heard by a congregation melted to tenderness. This service seemed to settle the conviction in all minds that Mr. Chalfant should devote himself to the work of the ministry. Being duly recommended, the Rev. Wm. H. Raper presented the case of Brother Chalfant to the Ohio Conference at its session held in Chillicothe, September 27, 1843, and he was received into the traveling connection. His first charge was Lewisburg Circuit, and the following year he was appointed to Fletcher Circuit. While in this charge, July 17, 1845, Mr. Chalfant was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. John F. Talley, of Batavia, Ohio. Mrs. Chalfant entered heartily into sympathy with her husband in his plans of work, and successively they served the Church in the following pastoral charges: Troy Circuit, North Bend Circuit, Wilmington; Maysville, Covington, Kentucky; Oxford, Ohio, and Columbia Street, Springfield. At the next session of the Conference, the Second Church, Urbana, was organized, and Mr. Chalfant was appointed its first pastor.

From Urbana Mr. Chalfant was stationed in Park Street, Cincinnati, and was next appointed to Dayton District. From this he was transferred to Springfield District, on which he had served but one year, when he was appointed pastor of Trinity Church, Cincinnati. Under his pastorate the final indebtedness on this costly building was paid. In the Summer of his third year at Trinity he was appointed by the bishops, and commissioned by Bishop Clark, to go into the South as superintendent of our mission work, which was then so rapidly developing. After spending two years in this work, Dr. Chalfant returned, and was appointed presiding elder of the West Cincinnati District. Having served a full term on this charge he was transferred to the East Cincinnati District, of which he was, for the next four years, the successful presiding elder.

This was Dr. Chalfant's last charge in the regular itinerant work. Having for several years suffered from disease of the heart and stomach that threatened his life, under advice from his physician, he requested and Conference granted him a supernumerary relation. In this new relation he has preached as his health and circumstances have allowed, filling the pulpits that were accessible without too much exposure. He was elected a delegate to the General Conference of 1872. When in 1863 Bishop Morris was designated by the bishops to visit the Conferences in Western New York, and adjust the troubles that threatened the destruction of the Church in that region, he chose Dr. Chalfant as his confidential adviser, and took him with him as his private secretary.

Dr. Chalfant's abilities were recognized beyond the limits of our own denomination, and thirty years ago he was chosen one of the trustees of the Miami University, which position he held with credit to the State, to the university, and to the Church he represented for a score of years. The hold which he had on the minds of public men is also seen in the fact that after his retirement from the ministry he was appointed to the responsible and honorable trust of a director of the Longview Asylum for the insane. This trust he held and served with eminent ability for seven years, and was administering at the time of his decease.

His mind was of a high order and under excellent discipline. His various and extensive acquirements were such that nearly twenty years ago the degree of doctor in theology was conferred upon him by the Ohio University. He excelled in administrative ability. He was a good presiding officer, a good judge of men and of character, an excellent manager of the business of the Church, and of the institutions of which he was a trustee. He was a sincere Christian, a true friend, a generous neighbor, a devoted husband, and his loss is deeply felt.

His last sickness was of several weeks' continuance, during which his sufferings were great, and his peace as a Christian was undisturbed. During the session of the Cincinnati Conference (in 1884) the ministers did not know of his sickness, but on subsequently learning of it, the Cincinnati Ministers' Meeting appointed a committee, consisting of W. I. Fee, W. L. Hypes, and the writer, to visit Dr. Chalfant on a mission of sincere sympathy and brotherly love and service on its behalf. To these brethren, to his wife, and to other friends who visited his bedside, Brother Chalfant gave strong and repeated assurances of his spiritual triumph, his resignation to the will of God, his trust in Christ, and his good hope of everlasting life. In this blissful assurance he sweetly fell asleep in Christ, October 5th, at 6 A. M., at his residence in Springdale, Ohio. Shortly before his last sickness, Mrs. Chalfant having been called away from home, on her return said to her husband: "Have you felt lonely?" "O, no," was the response, "I have had a very pleasant afternoon of uninterrupted fellowship and communion with God." Such remarks characterized his last sickness. A short time before he died, when all were standing around his bed, he said, "Now I am almost over, and I want you all to pray." Brother

Joseph Curtis offered a fervent prayer, to the petitions of which Brother Chalfant gave audible responses, and with these utterances he passed away. His funeral services were held on the following Saturday morning, and were participated in by Revs. R. K. Deem, W. I. Fee, W. L. Hypes, I. W. Joyce, J. J. Reed, J. Murray, D. C. Ridgway, Mr. James, of the Presbyterian Church, and the writer. The remains were interred in Spring Grove Cemetery. D. J. STARR.

REV. ANDREW MURPHY.

REV. ANDREW MURPHY was born in Wilmington, Delaware, November 28, 1796, and died in New Carlisle, Ohio, February 4, 1885, aged eighty-eight years, two months, and seven days. When he was eighteen years of age he was converted and joined the Methodist Church in Chester County, Pennsylvania. November 20, 1817, he married Miss Mary Mercer, a good, Christian lady, who, with most exemplary patience, piety, and frugality shared with him the burdens of life, and, on the meager support given to Methodist preachers in their day, provided for their eleven children, most of whom came to mature years, and to two of whom they gave a collegiate education. Death had claimed all these save three. That faithful wife and mother laid down her life-burden in the parsonage in Madisonville, Ohio, on the 11th of March, 1858, in the sweetly consoling hope of eternal life. June 16, 1859, Brother Murphy closed his year and a quarter of widowerhood by marrying Mrs. Elizabeth Leeper, an excellent lady and faithful helpmate. She was loved and honored by his children, as if a mother, indeed; and herself childless, she also preceded him to the spirit land July 3, 1870, in New Carlisle, O., where, as a superannuate, our brother had settled, and where he ended his own long pilgrimage, cared for by his widowed daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis.

Brother Murphy was a good example of a kind and affectionate husband, a faithful and devoted father, and a genial and generous friend. He was a citizen of the utmost probity and promptness in all his business engagements, commanding respect and love as far as known. But we are most interested in him as a Methodist traveling preacher. He was a representative man, of a type of itinerants of whom few now remain, even on the frontier borders of our country, for the Church and the social life of our whole people has undergone many and material changes. April 15, 1832, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Hedding, in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1837 he was received into the traveling connection, in the Ohio Conference, and at Cincinnati, September 2, 1839, he was ordained elder by Bishop Soule. From his own memoranda we are able to give his appointments. They were as follows: On his admission, in 1837, he was appointed to Worthington Circuit; 1838, Granville Circuit; 1839, Somerset Circuit; 1840, Rushville Circuit; 1841, French Grant Circuit; 1842, same; 1843, Barton Circuit; 1844, same; 1845, Coolville; 1846, same; 1847, Georgetown Circuit, circuit divided, and called Winchester, and returned in 1848; 1849, Highland Circuit; 1850, Clarksville

Circuit; 1851, same; 1852, West White Oak Circuit; 1853, Williamsburg Circuit; 1854, same; 1855, Miami Circuit; 1856, same; 1857, Madisonville Circuit; 1858, Venice Circuit; 1859, Jamestown Circuit; 1860, same; 1861, Fletcher Circuit; 1862, Winchester Circuit, in Preble County, Ohio; 1863, Port Union Circuit; 1864, same; 1865, took a superannuated relation, and purchased a house and lot and moved to New Carlisle, Ohio.

Brother Murphy's memoranda of his work were carefully preserved by him, and indicate the most careful and painstaking method in every part of his work. He was a model circuit man, and as a preacher-in-charge, with one or more junior colleagues, did much to build up the Church, enlarge his fields of labor, and teach young ministers how to be successful pastors, sound theologians, and efficient evangelists at the same time. His papers show that he seldom, if ever, "dropped" an appointment, but, instead, added new ones. In his day the salaries paid were usually very small, yet he never allowed himself to become involved in debt, though much of the time having a family of nine or ten persons. He was a close Bible student all his life, and in his memorandum book he has carefully collated texts of Scripture, which he entitles, "A list of texts, embracing the principal doctrines in theology and experimental and practical godliness." These comprise one hundred and sixty-six citations. It was his habit, while confined at his home by the infirmities incident to age, to read a great deal, particularly in the Scriptures. He had become so familiar with these that he was appealed to by some of his more intimate acquaintances as one would go to the concordance.

On Monday morning, February 2d, he had been reading in Jeremiah, and leaving the book open, he laid his spectacles down upon the page, and walked out into the yard. Soon returning, he took his seat in the large chair he was accustomed to occupy, seeming about in his usual physical condition. In a few moments his daughter, Sister Ellis, came in and found him leaning over to his left side, and unable to speak. Paralysis had seized him, and it was apparent that the end was not far away. After being placed upon the bed he rallied a little, and was able to speak some words intelligibly. He assured us that he was not suffering much pain. Although he was quite restless for about twenty-four hours, he did not rally, but continued to sink, being unable to swallow any thing. On Wednesday night, at a few minutes past ten o'clock, he ceased to breathe, and his tired spirit passed to the rest prepared for the people of God. One single expression concerning his spiritual condition he clearly articulated in answer to my question as to whether he realized the consolations of the Gospel on that Monday morning. He said, "I feel very comfortable," and added more which we could not understand. His funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church of New Carlisle, and were largely attended.

REV. JOHN N. IRVIN.

REV. JOHN NEWTON IRVIN, the second son of John and Melinda Irvin, was born April 20, 1847, at Mt. Solon, Augusta County, Virginia, and died March 6, 1885, aged thirty-seven years, eleven months, and sixteen days. In the year 1858 his parents removed to, and settled upon, a farm in Allen County, Ohio. Here John remained until nineteen years of age, occupied with the labors of the farm, attending and teaching the district school. At the age of seventeen he began teaching. His great-grandfather, Edward Irvin, an Englishman, having been educated in a German university for the purpose, served as a professor in the college at Philadelphia in colonial times. His taste for learning John inherited and cultivated, until a boundless thirst for knowledge possessed him. In its pursuit he manifested tireless energy.

In the year 1866 he left the farm for university life, entering the college at Delaware, Ohio, where he completed a five years' course of study in four years, though absent from the institution, teaching, a part of this time.

John N. Irvin was a man of Roman energy. During his collegiate life he was noted for his proficiency in all his studies, and was always among the first in his classes. The same is true of his record at Drew Theological Seminary. This course of study, to which three years of close application is usually given, he took in two years, while serving as a tutor in the seminary and as pastor of a congregation to whom he preached regularly.

His ardent nature, unsatisfied with these scholastic advantages, yearned for the universities of the Old World. Thither he went, accompanied by his faithful wife and their two boys, in the Fall of 1880, remaining two years in the universities at Leipsic and Berlin, Germany, giving his attention to the German, Hebrew, Sanskrit, and Arabic languages. Here his application was so intense that his brain, in self-defense, refused longer to work, and he was compelled to take a vacation of seven weeks, during which they visited Italy. Of this visit he wrote, "I was sinfully busy."

Immediately on his return to this country he took a chair in Prof. Harper's Summer Hebrew School, at Morgan Park, Chicago, Ill. Thence to the session of the Cincinnati Conference, and, after a year of laborious activity, returned to this school, instead of taking a much-needed vacation, to teach in four weeks what, on the old plan, would occupy a school year. Now, this work required the most intense application, not alone in his classes, but during the hours of special preparation, for which he continuously robbed himself of greatly needed sleep. Then, during the six years, he wrote the Bible Lessons for the Western Christian Advocate. He habitually took for this task the preacher's rest-day, Monday, often going far into the night, working at white heat.

Mr. Irvin was a careful and painstaking student, fearless in his researches. It was his custom to read the works of the master thinkers on both sides of every subject. Again, he was over-abundant in the labors of the pastorate; he slighted no part of this work, but applied himself with unusual diligence to its humblest, as well as its highest, offices.

All this continuous draft upon his vital forces, under the fatal delusion that his was an iron constitution and could endure the strain. Ever since his college days he has borne the marks of overwork. On the day he graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University, President Merrick remarked, "I have no fears for Irvin, except that he may overwork and break down in early life." This man of keen insight saw the end from the beginning. Thus early in life discovered itself the zeal that hath eaten him up. At the time the fatal malady seized him he was conducting a successful protracted meeting, attending all its services, though almost exhausted physically. During this time he continued to write the Bible Lessons, and heard students daily in Greek and German, in addition to his regular and special pulpit preparations. When suddenly he failed, and was not.

"O, what a noble heart was here undone,
When science' self destroyed her favorite son!
'Twas thine own genius gave the fatal blow,
And helped to plant the wound that laid thee low."

When ten years old, young Irvin read a book called, "Come to Jesus," that made a great impression on his religious nature. At fifteen he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in May, 1862, at a meeting conducted by Rev. A. C. Barnes, D. D., of the Central Ohio Conference, Wesley Chapel, Elida Circuit. "His conversion was clear as a sunbeam, full of joy." This was the beginning of a singularly simple, earnest, and devout Christian life. His piety was characterized by American simplicity and Oriental spirituality. He possessed a broad, catholic spirit, evinced by his custom while visiting the cathedrals of the Old World; he uniformly entered reverently and worshiped with the devout.

Rev. Franklin Marriott, of Elida Circuit, licensed him to exhort August 4, 1866, and on June 20, 1870, he was licensed to preach by Rev. A. Harmount, at Delaware. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Ames March 17, 1872, and elder by Bishop Foster, August 30, 1874. He entered the Cincinnati Conference at Eaton, Ohio, in the year 1872, and served the following named charges: Fairmount, Mt. Auburn, Lebanon, Trinity—Cincinnati, Grace—Piqua, and Raper—Dayton.

Mr. Irvin had a high appreciation of the office and duties of the pastorate. It opened to his ardent nature rare opportunities for reaching the minds and hearts, and influencing the lives, of the masses; and it should be said he occupied the large sphere of usefulness his position opened to him. Gladly did he embrace these opportunities with all the enthusiasm of a strong, manly, intense nature. With him this work was an inspiration. His rare culture gave him great influence over the more intellectual of his audiences; his genial nature, earnest sympathy, and high social qualities called around him those who loved a pure social life; while his great simplicity of character, and his unaffected fellowship with the worthy poor and humble drew to him these classes. He preached to all classes because he loved humanity.

Without the graces of oratory, his natural and acquired abilities made him an able preacher.

He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Humphreys, of Delaware, Ohio, October 9, 1873, who with their two boys and little daughter, survives to mourn his early death. In his last hours he was conscious, but so prostrated that he could not speak, even to his wife. He passed calmly into the unseen world. Without a message from him, we have the memory of his manly, courteous, and kindest fellowship; his example of heroic effort at self-culture, and of unflagging industry in all the work of the ministry.

His funeral was held in Raper Chapel, Dayton, Ohio, where he last ministered the Word of Life, and was attended by the largest gathering of the Conference, between sessions, during our history. We mourn one who had a profound interest in the sessions and the work of this Conference; one who cherished a personal interest in each member of the body. A nobleman has gone from our company.

MRS. SALLIE STOCKWELL DYCHE.

SALLIE STOCKWELL DYCHE was born in Flemingsburg, Ky., August 10, 1796, and was married to Rev. David D. Dyche, October 9, 1822. She shared with him the privations of a Methodist traveling preacher in the early portion of the present century, when her husband, on account of failing health, took a certificate of location, and settled in New Carlisle, O., where, September 11, 1837, he died, leaving her at 41 to take the burden of life alone. She was the mother of four sons and a daughter, all of whom preceded her. Three only attained mature age, and only two grandchildren survive. For forty-seven years she lived in the same place a widow, respected and beloved by all that knew her. The cheerful and genial spirit ever uppermost and apparent made her a welcome guest in every family and social circle in the neighborhood. Children vied with each other and their parents in respect and acts of kindness toward Auntie Dyche, as she was familiarly called, and though so far advanced in years, she is universally missed and mourned where, for more than half a century, she had lived as wife and widow. When but a youth she found salvation, and united with the Methodist Church. Though she had few advantages for education in her youth, she nevertheless possessed a good mind, and acquired much useful information under difficulties which few persons would successfully surmount. She was somewhat eccentric, but her eccentricities were never disagreeable, and were not indications of weak or defective character, but simply unique and pleasing individualisms. Her end came as the result of a deep-seated cold, which she had contracted a couple of weeks previously. She had seldom in her life suffered from serious illness, and when this came on, and so tenaciously continued, she became convinced that it was her last, and spoke of the end of life and the heaven beyond as exceedingly welcome; indeed, she longed for the end to come. On Sabbath, November 2d, she was very low, and seemed just on the eve of departure, but in the evening she said to me that she had enjoyed a glorious Sabbath, and had spoken to others in words of rapturous delight, assuring them of her peace and joy, and the sure hope of a home with Christ in heaven. Her mind was not seriously disturbed at any time, and she retained her faculties with clearness until the last. On the evening of Monday, November 3, 1884, she sweetly fell asleep in the presence of many kind and loving friends, upon whose pathway the halo of her good life and happy death sheds its abiding luster. She had attained the age of 88 years, 2 months, and 25 days.

MRS. MARTHA Z. BEALL.

MRS. MARTHA Z. BEALL, widow of the Rev. I. I. Beall, late of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, died in Franklin, Warren County, Ohio, November 8, 1884, in the sixty-first year of her age.

In early life she espoused the cause of Christ, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, by which she departed from her earliest denominational association and training, and gave evidence of personal convictions fitting her for the honorable positions to which she was subsequently called.

While she was a practical itinerant from the time of her marriage till the close of life, her actual itinerancy covered a period of only eight years. These years were passed in Yellow Springs, Fairfield, and Waynesville charges. Being returned to Fairfield by the Conference of 1860, the parsonage of that place became the scene of an unusual sorrow, in which our sister was the chief mourner. That scene of sorrow was the death of both her children—Eddie, less than four years old, and Otho, a little more than six—and her husband, all in the short space of only eleven days. The remembrance of such a sorrow is sufficient to stir the tenderest emotions, and start the sympathizing tear. How, then, must it have been with her on whose heart the burden rested with greatest power!

A daughter was subsequently born, and grew to womanhood with every promise of being the solace of the mother's heart, and the joy of her declining years. Educated at the Hillsboro Female College, mind and heart were alike responsive to noble sentiments, and a life of usefulness seemed spread out before her; but God saw fit to order otherwise, and in April, 1883, he took the spirit of the fair Naomi to himself.

This left the mother almost alone, as, of her near relatives, only one sister remained alive, and she resided some distance away. And yet she was not alone, for she had learned where to carry her sorrow in order to find rest—her loneliness to find communion—and the ever-present Friend stood by her to cheer and comfort.

Mrs. Beall was particularly zealous in the temperance cause, and dragged herself to the Church only a few days before her death, that she might be present at the county convention of the W. C. T. U.

As she approached the end of life, greatly weakened by a protracted struggle with consumption, it seemed not strange that there was experienced no particular exuberance of feeling, but her conscious peace was abiding, full, and unwavering. Every look, and word, and gesture indicated her constant consciousness that all was well with her soul.

Active beyond her strength, and every power of mind and heart devoted to the interests of God and humanity, it may well be said of her, as Jesus said of another, "She hath done what she could." May the mantle of her faithfulness fall upon others! R. E. SMITH.

MRS. ELIZABETH MARLAY.

MRS. ELIZABETH MARLAY was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, April 6, 1799. In 1819 she was married to Michael Marlay, who, in 1831 became a member of the Ohio Conference, of which body he was a member until the organization of the Cincinnati Conference, in which he labored as a prominent and faithful minister until his death, which occurred at Ripley, Ohio, in 1866.

Mrs. Marlay was a devoted wife, a real helpmate to her husband, a loving, self-denying mother, and bore with uncomplaining patience the toils and trials of the itinerancy for thirty-five years. The ministry of Michael Marlay covered a large field, embracing some large circuits and presiding elders' districts. It began before the day of railroads, or even turnpikes, and the long journeys required in the prosecution of such a ministry were performed on horseback. It was not an uncommon thing, a third of a century ago, for a presiding elder to be absent from home for a month or six weeks. In the meantime the care of the family devolved upon the wife. No wife or mother ever performed the duties demanded by such an exigency with more painstaking fidelity than did Mrs. Marlay. She was devoted to her family, and it was the ambition of her life to look well to the ways of her own household. Mrs. Marlay was converted at a camp-meeting held near Dayton, in this State, in the days of her girlhood. In her Christian life she was unobtrusive, modest, and even retiring, but at the same time clear and uniform in her testimony as to the power of Jesus to save and to keep.

The last years of Mrs. Marlay's life were spent in Urbana, where she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Deuel. She was a great sufferer for several years, but every thing was done for her comfort and happiness which the loving heart of a devoted daughter could suggest, and on the fourth day of June, 1885, she calmly fell asleep in Jesus, and entered upon the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

MRS. MARY E. CONREY.

MRS. MARY ELLIOTT CONREY, the beloved wife of Rev. J. F. Conrey, of the Cincinnati Conference, fell asleep in Jesus, in Urbana, Ohio, August 13, 1885.

She was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Charles Elliott, D. D., at one time an honored and distinguished member of the Cincinnati Conference. She was born in Canfield, Mahoning County, Ohio, March 17, 1826. Her childhood home was lovely and attractive because of the Christian graces therein exemplified.

In her seventeenth year she was converted to God, at the altar in Wesley Chapel, Cincinnati, during the pastorate of Rev. E. W. Sehon, D. D. Sister Conrey's religious life was ever afterwards marked by steady, consistent piety, ample proof of which was shown by sacrifice and toil cheerfully endured in the Master's cause. Never demonstrative in religious manifestations, Sister Conrey gave evidence of deep and uniform devotion to Christ. She was earnest and successful in Sabbath-school work, greatly endearing herself to her scholars, and so helping them in the study of the Blessed Word. Her last Sabbath-school class testified their appreciation of her usefulness by presenting her a beautiful engraving. Her fellow workers in Hartwell, where, for several years, as the pastor's wife in his last pastorate, she was his helper, bear glad tribute to her worth and usefulness. Among other statements, I find the following :

Mrs. Conrey was formerly a devoted and beloved teacher of the young ladies' Bible-class. . . . We make affectionate mention of Sister Conrey's noble womanhood and uniform, Christian service, as illustrated in her Sunday-school instructions, in her domestic relations, in the quiet walks of life, and also in her modest, retiring, gentle spirit of sacrifice and self-denial. She visited the sick, encouraged the timid, exhorted the wavering, stimulated the weary, spoke words of cheer to the desponding, and constantly in her life exemplified the teachings of her Lord and Master, who 'went about doing good.' Her sweet smile of Christian amiability, her gentle tone of winning love, and her sympathetic words of affectionate counsel and tender admonition, are still fresh and fragrant in our memory, reflecting the halo of Gospel light—a precious legacy for present incitement, and a rich inheritance for all coming time."

Mrs. Conrey was the child of an itinerant Methodist minister. Her father belonged to that eminent body of men, the Methodist itinerants. One of his earliest appointments was as a missionary among the Wyandot Indians, in Sandusky, Ohio. He journeyed thither on horseback from his first circuit in Western Pennsylvania.

March 26, 1846, she was married to Rev. J. F. Conrey, then a member of the Ohio Conference, so assuming and adopting the hardships and toils of the itinerancy, which, until then, had been hers by inheritance. These sacrifices and trials were ever afterwards cheerfully endured by her. The first year of wedded life was spent in Oxford, where, at the time of their marriage, her husband was pastor. Then followed Hillsboro, Ripley (two terms), Wilmington, Christie Chapel, City Mission (Cincinnati), Troy, Raper (Dayton), Springfield, Xenia District, Second Church (Urbana), then several years of rest from the itinerancy; after that, Harrison, Grace Church (Piqua), Winton Place, and Hartwell. Since then, for four years she has dwelt in her beautiful Urbana home. Her recent, sudden removal has produced a universal sense of loss and regret.

In all these relations and positions, as the patient, uncomplaining wife of the faithful itinerant, she cheerfully and hopefully met the rigors and trials of successive removals, displaying amid them exemplary zeal and piety. While her health was never robust, yet she was never seriously ill, except during the Hillsboro term. For the last several years her strength has been gradually declining. On the morning of August 13, 1885, she and her husband were riding to the camp-meeting, three miles from Urbana, with her pastor, Dr. Pearne, in his carriage. When on the way, she was fatally stricken with paralysis, rendering her unconscious. Carefully and tenderly she was conveyed to her home. After lingering in unconsciousness for some five hours, without a struggle or a groan, she peacefully passed away to her eternal rest.

Soon after starting for the camp-ground she remarked, referring to a plentiful rainfall of the preceding night, "We have had a most delightful rain." These were her last words. Before the carriage could convey her to the earthly assembly, the Lord's chariot had called to bear her to the upper sanctuary. Before she could catch the strains of the earthly worshipers, she heard the new, eternal song before the throne.

Of Sister Conrey's father's family, two brothers and two sisters survive her. Of her own family, a husband and son, two daughters-in-law, and four grandchildren remain. Two children preceded her to the spirit world—one a son who died in infancy; the other, Charles, who had reached manhood, and who died some four years since. For her surviving kindred the loss is irreparable; for her the gain is eternal. The completing seal has been set upon her life; she has been welcomed to the joy of her Lord.

THOMAS H. PEARNE.

MRS. SARAH ROSS WHITE.

SARAH ROSS WHITE was born near Boundbrook, in Middlesex County, New Jersey, March 28, 1805. When six years of age her parents moved to Ohio, and settled on lands near what is now known as Ludlow Station, or the Ross farm. During the revival of 1820 at a service held at the residence of John Ludlow, she united with the Church, and obtained a clear evidence of her acceptance with God.

On November 23, 1824, she was married to Rev. Levi White, and for forty-four years shared with him the life of an itinerant. She had an appreciative sense of all that would help or hinder her husband's usefulness, and did all in her power to supplement his preaching by the influence of a sweet, Christian spirit and a well ordered household. In the absence of her husband she always maintained daily worship at the family altar, the memory of which lives in the love of her sons and daughters. Her piety was practical; it gave a warm welcome to the weary traveler, and no Methodist itinerant ever left her home without thanking God, and feeling himself a better man for having known such a woman.

She had a firm and constant faith in God's promises. The loss of her eldest son, a young man of deep piety and brilliant talents, who was preparing to enter the ministry, proved to be a lifelong test of her faith. Through these years she looked "not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen," and this affliction wrought for her "an exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

Her eightieth year found her a great sufferer, but with strong mind and clear memory. On Sabbath morning, May 3, 1885, every object which she could see from her window seemed to have a special touch of beauty—the mark of her Father's love—and she could speak only words of thankfulness and praise. Later her children gathered in the room to engage in singing and prayer, and she told them again of her faith in God and submission to his will. While a favorite hymn was sung, her lips moved with the words—

"My latest sun is sinking fast,
My race is nearly run."

When they reached the chorus, the waving of her hands and the heavenly light upon her face told that the "angel band" was near.

On Monday morning they took her home.

Brethren of the Conference:

We send you the Minutes as soon after adjournment as possible. Some material for the Conference Biography has, therefore, reached us too late for insertion in the table.

Other conferences have complete reports for this table, and it is hoped that any omissions will be supplied before our next session. If errors are detected please inform the Secretary.

Only the liberality of our advertisers makes it possible to furnish the Minutes at the price marked on your packages. We aim to exclude every thing unreliable or even questionable. Please call the attention of your members to this department of our bound Minutes.

Brethren who take subscriptions before Conference invariably order more copies than are otherwise used in the same charges.

If you would in all cases before leaving Conference direct where and how to send your packages, much delay in shipment might be avoided.

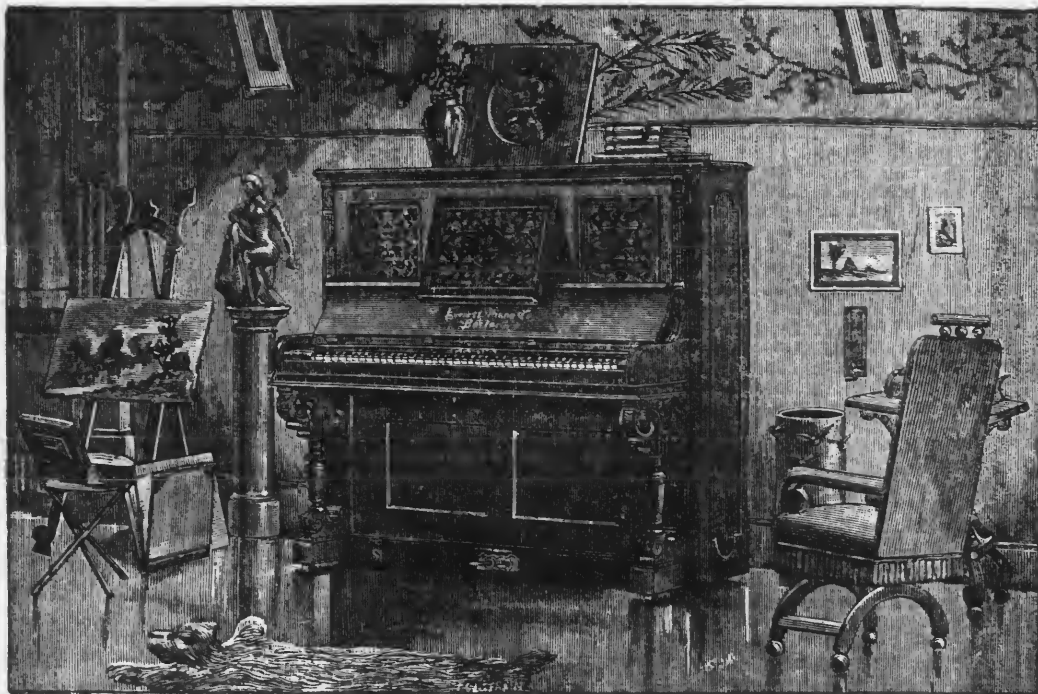

Early payment of your subscriptions for Minutes at the Book Concern will greatly oblige us.

Suggestions on any branch of our work will always be appreciated by
